CITY OF INDIANAPOLIS
OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

ADDENDUM TO STATEMENT OF ECONOMIC INTEREST
MAY 1, 2007

#5. The City of Indianapolis owns and utilizes suites at Conseco Fieldhouse, the RCA Dome, and Victory Field for economic development, business development, charitable and social purposes. As Mayor, I am occasionally the host of these suites and attend games or events. The Columbia Club and Skyline Club each have waived initiation and monthly membership fees for my use of these clubs while I serve as Mayor. I occasionally utilize these memberships for City business and pay for any additional personal charges out of my personal funds.

In my official capacity as Mayor, and when I attend various functions on City business, I sometimes receive souvenirs, mementos, and other gifts that I accept on behalf of the City for public display, storage or donation. In addition, I have received the following items during 2006:

- In January 2006, my wife and I received two (2) tickets to attend a theatrical performance at Clowes Hall as guests of Butler University President Bobby Fong and his wife Suzanne Fong.
- In February 2006, as part of the effort to obtain the NCAA Men's and Women's Basketball Big Ten Tournaments in Indianapolis for the next five (5) years, I flew round-trip to Chicago with Indiana Sports Corporation officials on a plane provided by the Indiana Pacers.
- In March 2006, in connection with the NCAA Men's and Women's Big Ten Basketball Tournaments in Indianapolis and as an honorary member of the local organizing committee, I received from the Indiana Sports Corporation clothing items (i.e. hats, shirts, and/or pullovers) with the NCAA Big Ten Basketball logo.
- In April 2006, in connection with the NCAA Men's Final Four in Indianapolis and as an honorary member of the local organizing committee, I received from the Indiana Sports Corporation clothing items (i.e. hats, shirts, and/or pullovers) with the NCAA Final Four logo.
- Four (4) tickets from the Capital Improvement Board for the NCAA Men's Final Four in Indianapolis.
- Two (2) tickets to the Indianapolis 500 from the Indianapolis Motor Speedway.
- Three (3) tickets to the U.S. Grand Prix from the Indianapolis Motor Speedway.
